Tokio Marine Group Companies Donate $250,000 for Hurricane Harvey Relief

Ten Tokio Marine companies, nine with U.S. operations, support Harvey disaster relief.

September 1, 2017 – Tokio Marine Group companies are combining to donate a total of $250,000 to assist with Hurricane Harvey relief efforts. With the storm and its remnants still impacting Texas and parts of the south, each company is also inviting its employees to make contributions to help the affected communities.

“Tokio Marine has several offices and employees in the path of Harvey, including the headquarters of Tokio Marine HCC in Houston,” shared Yasunobu Fukuda, President and CEO of Tokio Marine North America. “On behalf of the Tokio Marine Group, I extend our thoughts and prayers to everyone affected by this disaster.”

Nine of the companies, including Tokio Marine Holdings in Japan, have pledged a total of $225,000 to the American Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund. Safety National will donate $25,000 to All Hands Volunteers, a U.S.-based non-profit organization that addresses the immediate and long-term needs of communities impacted by natural disasters.

Here is the full list of Tokio Marine companies pledging their support:

- Tokio Marine Holdings (Japan): $100,000
- Philadelphia Insurance Companies (PHLY): $50,000
- Tokio Marine America: $25,000
- Safety National: $25,000
- Delphi Financial Group: $10,000
